Willis Still Silent as to His Instructions.

A JUBILEE BY THE ROYALISTS

Thurston Wrapped in Silence—Indignation Expressed by Senator Mitchell.

HONOLULU, November 7.—[Correspondence of the Associated Press.]—Up to the time the steamer China left Honolulu Minister Willis had not made known his instructions from President Cleveland. He arrived early on the morning of November 4th, and went directly to Blount's old quarters. On the 6th, in an interview, he stated that he had not yet presented his credentials to the provisional government, and until he does, it would be an act of discourtesy to the Hawaiian government to discuss the political situation. He positively declined to state when he would make his official communication.

There was a large gathering at the home of one of the ex-Queen's supporters on November 6th, attended solely by royalists. Lilinokalani had passed word around that she was to be restored to her throne on Wednesday, November 8th. It is reported that the gathering is in the nature of a jubilee.

Admiral Irwin arrived on the 6th to supercede Admiral Skerrett. The annexationists regard this as significant. They think Blount reported to President Cleveland that Skerrett was not the proper man to have in Honolulu in case he should decide to put the Queen back on the throne, although Skerrett never voiced any annexation sentiments.

THURSTON SILENT.

WASHINGTON, November 13.—L. A. Thurston, minister from Hawaii to the United States, returned to the city tonight. He refused an interview in regard to the Hawaiian situation and he would say nothing further than what he had said to an Associated Press representative in Chicago. When asked if he knew anything of the contents of the cipher dispatch which the state department received today from Honolulu via San Francisco the minister replied he had no information on the subject. He admitted he received advices from the Hawaiian government by the steamer China, but he said he had not as much information as the press reports published this afternoon.

Thurston was asked what course he proposed to pursue in view of the situation his government was placed in by the declaration of the administration's policy. He replied he had not perfected his plans as yet.

WASHINGTON, November 13.—Officials of the navy department say they have no news from Honolulu by the steamer that arrived at San Francisco. Gresham asserts he has nothing to say on the Hawaiian question. Soon after the reports received from Honolulu reached the department, Gresham hurried over to the department and had a brief interview with Herbert.

PERPLEXED HAWAIIANS.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 13.—Hawaiians in San Francisco are wondering how the royalist faction obtains its inside news. From the day the Queen was deposed she and her supporters have never lost confidence in their cause. They have made predictions as to the action of the United States that have been invariably verified and the annexationists in Honolulu when they heard the Queen had ordered a new uniform for her retainers hardly knew what to think.

It is the opinion of those who came up from Honolulu in the China that the annexationists will make no resistance if the United States orders the queen put back, but that this government will have to keep a force of men constantly on shore to maintain her on the throne, and that will practically amount to annexation, with the singular anomaly of territory of the United States being governed by a woman who calls herself a queen.

SENATOR MITCHELL INDIGNANT.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 13.—Senator John H. Mitchell of Oregon arrived in the city this morning from Washington. Senator Mitchell has positive views on the Hawaiian question. In an interview he said he thought the government ought to be better employed than in trying to resuscitate a defunct monarchy in Hawaii. The news of President Cleveland's intentions had astounded him, and it is his opinion the recognition of an effete monarch is a decided mistake. "On general American principles," he said "the purpose was a weak one and represented a backing down on the part of the United States government." The senator also expressed himself as disgusted with the attitude of the government in regard to the anti-Chinese legislation.

A PLOT DISCOVERED.

NEW YORK, November 13.—A Washington special says it has just been discovered a plot to overthrow the Hawaiian kingdom was hatched in Washington last winter. The plotters went so far as to lay their schemes before the house committee on foreign affairs, of which Blount, ex-commissioner to Hawaii, was chairman, to the end that annexation might be rushed through. The correspondent says there is reason to believe the plot received the sanction of the Harrison administration.

A BANK ROBBERY.

Three Daring Robbers Loot an Oregon Bank.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., November 13.—A daring bank robbery and attempted murder occurred at Milton, Or., this afternoon. Three men rode into the town, two entered the bank and without warning shot President Hopson, wounding him twice. He fell to the floor and they covered the cashier and ordered him to hand out the money. He gave them a tray containing a thousand dollars and the men left.

They rode out of town and in five minutes an armed posse was in pursuit. The robbers made no attempt to disguise and one of them was identified as McCarty. It is thought they will be captured.

Unsuccessful Attempt to Rob.

ST. PAUL, November 13.—Last night robbers attempted to wreck the Omaha passenger train near Worthington. The track was so obstructed as to throw the train off the track. While awaiting its arrival the robbers held up, shot and robbed a man who happened to pass. He put the railroad officials on their guard and they sent a pilot engine ahead, which found the track spiked. The man robbed was a farmer on his way from Worthington, where he had drawn some money. He was shot in the leg. There is no clue to the robbers.

FIRE AT MEMPHIS.

Two Lives Supposed to Be Lost. Others Injured.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., November 13.—The Lenoos block went up in a blaze tonight. The fire communicated with other buildings, and for some time a general conflagration was threatened. The scene was wild with confusion and horror. Men jumped from windows to save their lives. Several were injured seriously. Two lives are supposed to have been lost. The flames licked their way up the stairs, which was the only means of exit from the top stories. Attention was attracted to cries from the third story in the rear, which was occupied by the Young Men's Christian Association, and several forms were seen at the windows in the stifling smoke appealing for aid. Before the firemen could locate the imprisoned men the heat became so intense they were forced to jump, fell on the rough flagstones and were terribly hurt. Four made the leap. Men were at windows until relieved by the hook and ladder brigade, and they almost suffocated.

Falling Into Line.

NEW YORK, November 13.—The Philadelphia Press-Times, The North-American, The Evening Bulletin and German Democrat today severed all relations with the United Press and joined the Associated Press, the service to begin at once.

CHICAGO, November 13.—The Worcester Spy, the oldest daily in Massachusetts, today severed its relations with the United Press and joined the Associated Press.

The Monterey Road.

HOLLISTER, November 13.—The engineers of the Monterey-Fresno railroad, under charge of Chief Engineer P. P. Dandrige, starts from Buena Vista next Thursday to locate the permanent line through the Coast Range across the San Joaquin plains to Fresno, and expect to reach the latter point in two weeks. This completes the entire permanent location and the road will be put under contract as soon thereafter as practicable.

Firing at Rio.

LONDON, November 13.—The Times' advices from Rio Janeiro say there was firing Sunday and Monday of last week by the government forts on Fort Villegaigon. Two men were killed and seven wounded within the fort. The troops of Castello opened musketry fire on Fort Villegaigon from a distance of 1200 yards.

Another Record Breaker.

BOSTON, November 13.—The new United States cruiser Columbia arrived in Boston harbor at 4 a.m. today from Delaware breakwater, her run at sea being the quickest ever made by a war vessel in this country, beating the New York's time over two hours. Thursday she will be given a trial trip.

Attempted Assassination.

PARIS, November 13.—An attempt was made this evening to assassinate Georgievitch, Servian minister to France, by a partly dressed man, who who fired a shot at him while he was in a restaurant. The assailant was arrested.

Capital Removal Case.

SACRAMENTO, November 13.—The supreme court, sitting here today, advanced on the calendar the capital removal case of H. P. Livermore vs. Secretary of State Waite, and will hear both that and the Rideout case Thursday.

The Markets.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 13.—Wheat—Firmer; December, $1.08½; May, $1.22.

Barley—Firm; May, 87c; December, 75½c.

Corn 90c.

Demand Mrs. Lease's Removal.

TOPEKA, KAS., November 13.—The Populists leaders today made a demand upon Governor Lewelling for the removal of Mrs. Lease from the state board of charity.

The Well Bred Woman.

The funny papers are never weary of descanting upon the flatteries of your society dame. "How are those beautiful children? I shall never forget how sweet they looked when I peeped in at them in their nursery that day. And how is your precious mother? What a wonder she is! Everybody speaks of her marvelous crazy quilts. And your husband? All the men are talking about him. That speech of his at the ——club dinner took everybody by storm." And so on, ad nauseam. But it never gets to that point with the listener. "The one thing of which men never tire is the honeyed voice of approval."

If, as Frederika Bremer says, "the great duty of life is not to give pain," your society dame is performing the great duty of life with admirable success. She not only does not give pain, but she bestows positive pleasure. Even to those who know that her words are meant only to smooth the passing moment and must not be taken too seriously her little "euphuisms" are grateful.

Among the better class of well bred people compliments are not "laid on with a shovel" nor "dragged in by the hair." They flow easily, for they are the result of a lifetime of effort to make one's self agreeable to everybody, so far as one can do it within the limits of truth. The unfailing aplomb of the well bred woman assists her wonderfully here. She recalls clearly at the first glance the peculiarities and the circumstances of her visitor, she sorts out the pleasant from the unpleasant, and she invariably alludes in her remarks to the pleasant. The transplanting, without its luxurious effusiveness, of this good custom into the home life and into the narrow circles of the "outs" could result only in good.—New York Times.

Reassured.

Angelina (anxiously)—Are you sure, dear, that you don't regret it, and that you don't sometimes miss your life as a bachelor?

Edwin (with cheerful conviction)—Not a bit. I tell you what, Angy, I miss it so little that if I were to lose you—a—I'm blessed if I wouldn't marry again.—London Tit-Bits.

The Proper Thing.

Miss Keedick—Mr. Gilley actually offered himself to Miss Darley on a postal card.

Miss Gasket—What did she do?

Miss Keedick—Refused him. She said she preferred sealed proposals.—Detroit Free Press.

THE FAIR IS BOOMING

Good Work of Director de Young.

FOREIGN EXHIBITS SECURED

The Exposition Will Be Second Only to the Chicago Fair.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 13.—Director General de Young returned from Chicago today, where he has been for a few weeks contracting for exhibits for the Midwinter Fair. He expressed himself as highly elated with the success of his mission. "In regard to foreign exhibits, we are going to have all we can furnish space for," says Mr. de Young, "as the commissioner for English exhibits has contracted for 6000 square feet in the Manufacturers' building, the Swiss commissioner has secured 200 square feet, an Irish exhibitor 100 square feet, Oriental exhibitors have contracted for 1000 square feet, and twice that amount is needed for the Austrian exhibit of Bohemian glassware, pottery, etc. The Russian exhibit will probably be one of the handsomest of all, and it will cover 12,000 square feet. The exhibit will occupy eighty square feet, and will include a magnificent display of marble statuary, etc. The Japanese will also have a fine exhibit in Manufacturers' hall, having secured 3000 feet, and the Germans will also do themselves credit. The entire Polish art exhibit, over 100 French pictures, and a large number from Germany and other art departments have been secured for the art building.

Work has by no means been confined to foreign exhibitors. The American department will include the exhibits of leading concerns of the country. The beautiful Ceylon pavilion has also been secured, and contracts have been signed with Swedish exhibitors as well.

To Prevent Anarchists Escaping.

PARIS, November 13.—The French government sent three special commissioners of police to the Spanish frontier with instructions to take every precaution possible to prevent anarchists crossing the frontier. The Spanish government has pledged itself to take similar action on the other side of the frontier whenever called upon by the French government. It is understood that the German, Austrian and Italian governments have sent additional instructions to their frontier police.

OBSERVER.

LAUGHTER AND MUSIC.

A Large Audience Entertained by Frank Daniels and "Little Puck."

The inimitable Frank Daniels and an excellent company presented the somewhat moth-eaten farce comedy, "Little Puck," at the Barton last evening, and if the play must be judged by the mirth it created and the audience it drew, it is as much a success now with its new specialties as in its palmy days. There are frequent interspersions of good vocal music in the revised "Little Puck," and the entertainment is enjoyable throughout.

Miss Annie O'Malley, who sang a solo and responded to a hearty encore, has a rich, melodious voice, and it is a delight to listen to her. Last night was her debut with the company.

The house was crowded and society well represented, though there was a conspicuous absence last evening, as there has been since the financial stringency, of gallants who were wont to accompany our society belles and debutantes to the theater.

The only boxes occupied were by Colonel Marcean and party.

Fanny Davenport, in "Fedora," is billed as the next attraction. She will appear next Wednesday, the 22d, and society is expected to turn out in force and in full dress.

Unsuccessful Robbers.

DECATUR, Ill., November 13.—An attempt was made tonight to hold up the Peoria, Decatur & Evansville passenger train due here at 10 p.m. Three men, masked with handkerchiefs, got on at Lincoln coal shaft when the train pulled out. They started from the combination car to the express part. Brakeman George Trol and some passengers tried to stop them. Three shots were fired by the robbers and one hit the brakeman in the stomach. He is expected to die. The robbers left the train at Salt Creek bridge. They got nothing.

Girls In Business.

Very much has been said on the subject of girls with independent incomes or well to do parents going into business or taking up any means of livelihood, and severe and it would seem very unjust criticisms have been indulged in.

It is claimed by working women and their champions that for a girl with a good home or an income to go into business or take remunerative work to do is unjust to those who are dependent on their own exertions for a living. Just where the justice of such criticism comes in it would be difficult for any philosopher to decide. No one thinks it strange. Indeed it is quite the proper thing, when a boy on or before arriving at maturity, goes out into the world to earn his living. However wealthy his father may be seems to make no difference. Indeed under such circumstances industry and application to business are looked upon as all the more praiseworthy, but for some mysterious reason the girl is not allowed this privilege.

This appears to be but another of the relics of barbarism which unfortunately cling like barnacles to the ship of progress.

Everybody has a right to earn a living or any portion of it by whatever honorable occupation he may see fit to take up. Whether it be a man or a woman matters not.

There is plenty of work in the world for both the boys and the girls.

EVOLUTION IN MONEY.

A WAY TO SOLVE THE VEXED QUESTION.

Why Not Apply Evolution to This as to Other Things?

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—Noting that the discussion of the finance question for the last few years had failed to bring out any satisfactory solution, and being very anxious myself to learn the difficulties surrounding it, I set about the task of trying to find them. This naturally drove me to search among the Millses, Henry Georges, Bellamys, Peter Coopers, and last but not least or shorter winded, the campaign orators, such as Weaver, Jerry Simpson, Mrs. Lease, Annie Dige et al., who stood last year with one foot on the Sierras and the other on the Alleghanies, and in thunder tones shook the great valleys beneath as they told of the schemes of Sherman and Wall street to rob us innocent suckers, and pointed the way out of their clutches through free silver and sub-treasury paper. Later Cleveland called the "Sanhedrim" in extra session to stop silver coinage and save the country, which, when it met, greatly disagreed, Dr. Voorhees claiming that the country was sick from too much silver, while Dr. Teller said that the only way to cure it would be to increase the dose and give it the entire amount.

After enduring all this and more, I concluded I knew less about the matter than at the start, and began to fear softening of the brain until told "that it was impossible," and I had talked with my neighbors and found that they were in about the same state of mind as myself. While I thus mused and went about in this abstract condition, thinking that the problem must be an infinite one and would never unravel—an idea struck me (pardon this boast). "Eureka!" I exclaimed; "I've got it sure. Yes, the missing link is found—it is evolution applied to money, nothing more or less!"

Why I was so long in dropping onto this idea I can't say, as in the last twenty years we had by evolution solved about all the mysteries of creation. We had learned within about half an hour of the number of millions of years the earth had existed, and about how long it took a monkey to evolve into a congressman. It has marked the various stages of progress in intelligence, tells what great strides have been made in manipulating nature for the comfort of man, shows the decline in man's ability to listen to long sermons and speeches, and the increase of his ability to live without eating (consider the case of Dr. Tanner for instance)—and, by the way, I wonder why this idea is not more firmly impressed on the tramp, that he can live three or four months very well without eating. Nor has the evolution been confined wholly to the long abstinence from food, for we are told that a few men in Fresno have been found who lived from Saturday midnight until Monday morning at 6 o'clock without a drink!

But, on the wonders of evolution we need not dwell; all are ready to admit that there is such a thing as advancement. If we should call up a council of "hayseeds" in Europe 1500 years ago and hear them discuss the merits of hickory, walnut, oak and other wood as best suited to the various soils for making a forked plow, with which they tilled the earth, we would fully realize that there had been advancement. If we draw comparisons as to transportation facilities, news gathering and distribution, as now by the railroad and telegraph, we realize that evolution has carried us a long ways beyond any interest to us of early methods as examples of how to conduct our affairs. If this be so clear and forcible as applied to all these things, then the question arises, "Why not have an evolution in our methods of money? Why should we forever be tied down by an old, barbarous money system that does so much to destroy our ability to utilize the advantages we hold in other things?"

In the few articles to follow under the head of "Evolution of Money" I propose to try to set forth a plan and system of money that will prove, in some degree, at least, an advance that will be relative to that in other things. Whatever may be our shortcomings, we promise to not "thresh the old-straw contention" over, but treat the subject as fairly as possible and on lines that are new.

DON'T neglect to do something for the Midwinter Fair exhibit. If you haven't anything to exhibit, contribute a little money.

A CHRYSANTHEMUM exhibited at the World's Fair has been named the "Mrs. Higinbotham." If the flower is worthy of the name it would make a good cushion for an easy chair.

TULARE is going to have a forty-acre irrigated farm at the Midwinter Fair. If this object lesson in irrigation is properly produced, as it doubtless will be, it will be a very interesting and novel attraction.

IT took the Mariposa grand jury just four days to investigate matters coming under its jurisdiction. The report shows a very satisfactory state of affairs. There was very little to find fault with, and no indictments were made. Life in the old mining camps seems to be harmonious and uneventful.

GOVERNOR MARKHAM'S Thanksgiving proclamation is an improvement on either that of Grover or Pennoyer. The Governor states the situation briefly, and then says we should return thanks for the privilege of living in the glorious climate of California. That is not only true, but a good advertisement for the state.

A MAJORITY if not all the saloon men of this city have shown that it is their intention to comply strictly with the ordinance requiring their places to be closed on Sunday and at 12 o'clock at night during the rest of the week. This compliance with a needed regulation is certainly a wise policy on the part of the liquor dealers, and the officers of the law should now do their part towards securing a continued disposition to observe the ordinance by enforcing strict compliance with it in every instance. It would be the rankest kind of injustice to adopt a regulation of this kind and permit a few parties to profit by the fact that a majority of their competitors obey the law. If the ordinance is but loosely enforced and a few saloons are permitted to evade it the natural result will be a general dissatisfaction among the liquor dealers and an effort to destroy its force and effect entirely. Complaint has been made that some of the drug stores of the city are taking advantage of the situation in a manner not warranted by the nature of their business, and if such is the case steps should be taken to hold them to a strict accountability for any violation of the law. The new ordinance will result in benefit to the community if it is strictly enforced; otherwise it will only lead to legal wrangling which will in all probability be beneficial to no one.

THE action of President Cleveland in the Hawaiian matter is characteristic, and if carried to its legitimate conclusion is likely to prove one of the most serious mistakes made by our supreme chief magistrate. The action of the President from the first in this question has been remarkable, and there is good reason for believing that it is inspired by a determination to discredit the action of a former administration at all hazards.

The sending of Blount to Hawaii as the personal representative of the President, clothed with authority paramount to that of the accredited representative of the United States, was clearly a usurpation of power and in violation of the constitution. It was the act of a ruler who apparently has not enough respect for the constitution of the government over which he presides to attain an object through a regular and precedented procedure, but who arbitrarily assumes the power to follow his own inclinations regardless of the rights of co-ordinate branches of the government.

The President's proposed action, as outlined in the approved letter of Secretary Gresham, appears to be an equally startling assumption of power. Aside from the difference of statement and opinion as to the methods by which the monarchy was set aside and the provisional government erected, the indisputable fact remains that the new government has not only been recognized as a duly constituted power by this government, but by other nations. What right, then, has Mr. Cleveland by his own motion to destroy a duly organized and recognized government and set up in its stead a farcical monarchy which apparently has not the strength to maintain itself without the assistance of a stronger power? If this is not an actual declaration of war against an established government it is something very closely akin to it, and is certainly a question that should be decided by congress and not by mandate of the executive. But, with an egotism that recognizes no equal in knowledge or judgment and an imperial will that ignores the law and constitution, this modern Cæsar proposes to right an alleged wrong by committing a still greater one, thereby discrediting the action of accredited representatives of this government, and assuming a responsibility which does not belong to him. Grover Cleveland is getting himself and the country into very deep water.

CHICAGO NEWS.

SEVERAL SMALL FIRES.

A Shed Belonging to George E. Church Destroyed.

About 6.30 o'clock Sunday evening a lamp exploded at the residence of C. H. Toy, setting fire to the room. Mrs. Toy and a friend who was visiting her, Miss Bowman, with great presence of mind ran for several comforters and succeeded in smothering the blaze. Miss Bowman's face was burned slightly.

Half an hour later the department was called to extinguish a fire in a shed situated on the alley between Merced and Tuolumne streets, west of the track. The shed contained about sixty tons of hay, which was entirely destroyed. It was the property of George E. Church.

A fire occurred in one of the rooms of the upper story in the Temple Bar building last evening, but was extinguished before the department arrived. The damage was insignificant.

Roast Chicken Galore.

From the Tulare Register.

Miles Holiday had a streak of bad luck last night. A lamp sitting under a patent setting hen he had under his tankhouse must have exploded, for along in the night the family were awakened by an unusual illumination or five dozen hens roasting. They are living on roast chicken out that way now, but they are done a little too brown to suit the taste, Holiday says. The loss is about $50, besides the poultry.

Rev. Collins and Attorney Hart Indicted.

LIBEL AND EMBEZZLEMENT

The Grand Jury Takes a Hand in the Blasingame-Bearden Scandal.

The highly sensational wrangling over the Blasingame-Bearden scandal, in which Rev. J. H. Collins, pastor of the Congregational church, took a prominent part, has resulted in the unexpected, the grand jury finding an indictment against the reverend gentleman.

It was pretty generally known that District Attorney Church felt aggrieved at the insinuations contained in a card published in the Expositor over the signature of Rev. Collins, and had brought the matter to the attention of the grand jury, but no information had leaked out as to the probable action of the grand jury until the indictment for criminal libel was found.

The bill of indictment, including Rev. Collins' card which occasioned it, reads as follows:

"J. H. Collins is accused by the grand jury of the county of Fresno, state of California, by this indictment, found this 13th day of November, 1893, of the crime of libel, committed as follows: That said J. H. Collins, on or about the 2d day of November, 1893, at the said county of Fresno, state of California, did wilfully, feloniously and with a malicious intent thereby to injure Firman Church, the district attorney of the county of Fresno, and to expose him to public hatred, contempt and ridicule, publish and cause to be printed and published and expressed by printing in a certain newspaper called the Daily Evening Expositor, printed at Fresno, in said county of Fresno, and published and circulated in said county of Fresno, the following defamatory and libelous words of and concerning said Firman Church, towit:

"'Something Queer—Food for Thought—Some Plain Facts Which Everybody Should Know.

"'I wish to present a few facts so that people may draw their own conclusion as to the relation of the public prosecutor to the Blasingame-Bearden case.

"'This public official (?) admits the commission of a crime—either rape or blackmail. It is true that either one of these crimes has been committed, and it is also true that this official (?) has not shown a vigorous disposition to bring the guilty parties to justice. For what is he paid?

"'When I first approached Mr. Church I asked him if a certain deputy might handle the case, and have no one else from the office touch it. He said yes; but a few days after this Mr. Blasingame mortgaged eighty acres of property in the Scandinavian colony for $16,000. He immediately sought an interview with Mr. Church and was secreted for nearly two hours with him, and thereupon Mr. Church informed me that he would not allow the certain deputy to handle the case. The terms of the mortgage may be seen at the recorder's office, on page No. 318 of a book entitled 'Mortgage,' and numbered 104. It was recorded September 20, 1893.

"'It is a notable fact that no counter affidavits were made until after this mortgage had been made. It is a notable fact that the father of the girl was anxious to prosecute the case, even up to the very day of the mortgage, but has not been since; and I claim it to be an outrageous fact that as soon as the mortgage was made the 'public prosecutor should take the matter out of the hands of a deputy whom he had promised to have handle it.

"'The question which I would like to have the public solve is what relation did the $16,000, presumably raised by mortgage on that eighty acres of land, have to do with the counter affidavits; the father's refusal to prosecute further; and last, but not least, the public prosecutor's flop in the case?

"'I will put it in the form of an equation: $16,000—counter affidavits—the father's refusal to prosecute—Mr. Church's flop=?

"'As to whether our public prosecutor should be a factor in such a problem I am willing the public shall decide, as I am also as to who is the 'bigger scamp.' J. H. COLLINS.

"'P. S.—I am interested in this matter only as a private citizen, and not as a pastor. I have a little girl of my own, and feel it to be my duty to stir the matter until something shall be done.

"'J. H. C.'

"Contrary to the form, force and effect of the statutes in such cases made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the people of the state of California." FIRMAN CHURCH,
District Attorney."

The names of the witnesses examined before the grand jury on finding the foregoing indictment were Jesse F. Church, W. H. McKenzie, L. A. Blasingame and Firman Church.

Rev. Collins was arrested, and Judge Holmes fixed his bond at $2500, which was given a few hours latter, with H. D. Colson and George A. Noble as sureties.

The second indictment was found against S. R. Hart, the attorney, for embezzlement, alleged to have been committed as follows:

"The said S. R. Hart, on or about the 25th day of November, 1892, at the said county of Fresno, state of California, was agent of Antone George, and as such agent and attorney, did then and there collect, and was intrusted with, and had under his control, for the use of said Antone George, the sum of $191 in gold coin of the United States, and he, the said S. R. Hart, did then and there, willfully, fraudulently and feloniously embezzle and appropriate to a use and purpose, not in the due and lawful execution of his trust, to wit: To his own use, said sum of $191, contrary to the form, force and effect of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the people of the state of California.

"FIRMAN CHURCH,
"District Attorney."

Names of witnesses examined before the grand jury, on finding the foregoing indictment: Antone George, Frank H. Short and Arch McDonald.

Defendant's bond was fixed by Judge Holmes in the sum of $2500, but afterwas reduced to $1000.

Sam Woldenburg and J. Ed. Hughes are the bondsmen for Hart.

SOME GOOD SHOOTING.

Companies C and F, N.G.C., at Target Practice.

The members of companies C and F who are to take part in the match shoot on Thanksgiving day are practicing diligently for that event. The first prize will be a handsome gold medal, to be paid for by the company that loses. There will be other prizes contributed by enterprising merchants.

Some of the guardsmen are of the opinion that twenty men are too many for each squad, as the scores of the poorer marksmen will reduce the scores in this, to be sure, but the very knowledge of this fact will stimulate the poor shooters to do better, with the result of improving the company's marksmanship in general—which is, after all, what is most to be desired.

Some good scores were made Sunday, company F showing itself superior to the senior company in marksmanship. At 200 yards, out of a possible 50, the following scores were made:

Company F—G. W. Jones, 44; James Smith, 43; T. H. Anderson, 40; H. A. Krohn, 36; O. O. Hart, 38; Charles Lane, 37; F. H. St. Clair, 36; T. G. Hart, Walter Dodge and A. Zipperlin made 35 each.

A number of others in both companies made over 30. There is a strong probability that company F will lose two of its best shots, James Smith and T. H. Anderson, who contemplate making their home elsewhere between this and Thanksgiving day. It is not likely that company C will mourn their absence.

MIDWINTER FAIR.

Contributions Received by the Commissioners Yesterday.

The following contributions to the Fresno county exhibit for the Midwinter Fair were received yesterday:

J. M. Heiskell, Dry Creek, a quantity of pecan nuts.

O. W. Bruce, West Park, some Egyptian corn.

C. C. Pease, a quantity of peanuts on the vine.

George C. St. Louie, Kings River, a cluster of handsome Japanese persimmons, from a tree three years after planting.

A large quantity of raisins will soon be received by the commission. The wine men are still holding back, though one or two have expressed the intention of making displays.

THIRSTY TIPPLERS.

FIRST DAY OF SUNDAY CLOSING QUIETLY PASSED.

The Drug Stores, Restaurants and a Few Club Houses Conveniently Open.

The Sunday closing clause of the ordinance recently enacted by the board of supervisors was put into operation last Sunday for the first time, and it was decidedly a bad day for the individuals who imagine that a cocktail before breakfast is a necessity. Yet, while cocktails and mixed drinks in general were at a premium, straight tanglefoot was procurable in quantities to suit, and it is safe to say that none of the habitual indulgers went thirsty.

It was a great day of rustling though, and the receipts of the drug stores show a big improvement in consequence. A few of the saloon men forgot to open the curtains that conceal the interior of their establishments from passing public inspection, but, of course, this may be ascribed to a lapse of memory occasioned by haste in closing the evening before in order to comply with the midnight provision of the law.

But the hilarious element were not as conspicuous on the streets as usual on the Sabbath, and if there was any great prevalence of drunks they were of the quiet and unobtrusive kind and out of consideration for decency did not meander at large.

The restaurants were frequented to an unusual extent and wine and beer were prominent on the bills of fare.

Flasks were on deposit in the boots of several hacks and coupes and the patrons of the hack lines did not go thirsty.

Knights of the green cloth found spirituous frumenti to the satisfaction of their appetites at the club rooms, where they mixed their own drinks, after "hitting" the "kitty." No liquors were sold, however.

So far as heard from no arrests have been made for violation of the ordinance, and every saloon in Fresno showed at least a front-door respect for the new law.

Reports from outside towns where liquor traffic is carried on indicate a general observance of the law, though it is said that many doors were left conveniently unlocked.

TRAMPING TO TEXAS.

A WOMAN WITH PLENTY OF PLUCK AND NO FUNDS.

Walking and Renting Her Way From Tacoma to a Relative in Texas.

A weary, dejected-looking little woman, costumed in black alpaca and carrying a good-sized valise, trumped into Fresno yesterday and listlessly dropped into a seat in the waiting room at the Southern Pacific depot.

An attache of the railroad informed a REPUBLICAN reporter that the woman had walked all the way from Mendota, a distance of thirty-four miles, and she was accordingly interviewed in regard to the necessity of such a hardship.

"I am simply a case of destitute circumstances," said the poor woman in response to inquiries, "and I am now suffering the hardships encountered by the moneyless individuals commonly termed tramps, the unusual difference being that I am a woman.

"I have been living at Tacoma, Wash., but the foreclosure of a mortgage rendered myself and a lady cousin homeless, and I concluded to make my way to San Antonio, Texas, where an uncle of mine resides. At Portland I fell sick with typhoid fever, and the $25 with which I started out was soon almost gone.

"As soon as I could travel I started out again and have made my way as best I could this far on my journey, occasionally walking many miles after being put off of a train because I had no ticket or no money to pay my fare. At several county seats I have applied to the authorities for a pass to my destination, but they declined to assist me because I was a non-resident. At Mendota the conductor put me off the train and I walked from there since day before yesterday.

The woman gave her name as Mrs. King, and she is probably 30 years of age. When asked if she was absolutely without funds she said that 15 cents was the sum total of her finances, the balance of a half dollar unsolicited donation from a gentleman at Mendota. She announced with some degree of pride that she had better clothes in her valise and would be all right as soon as she reached San Antonio.

Though in terrible straits the woman did not even insinuate that she needed money, but when the scribe depleted his treasury by digging up and donating a half dollar she pathetically expressed her gratitude.

COURT NOTES.

William Thompson Pleads Once in Jeopardy on Charge of Murder.

The trial of William Thompson, who is charged with killing an Indian named Joaquin near Pine Ridge something over twelve months since, came up in Judge Webb's department of the superior court yesterday. Thompson pleaded once in jeopardy and a former acquittal. This case has occupied the attention of the justice and superior court before, but the trial was never commenced until yesterday. Two jurors, C. A. Parlier and J. H. Beall, were secured and a special venire for thirty was issued returnable this morning at 9 o'clock. R. B. Terry and D. R. Prince are the defendant's attorneys.

In the case of J. R. Dixon vs. Henry Grles, the court ordered that the plaintiff was not entitled to judgment. The court stated that if the complaint would be amended so as to conform to the proofs, judgment would be rendered accordingly.

In the case of E. H. Kowalsky vs. the Fresno Canal and Irrigation Company, part of the answer was stricken out and demurrer overruled.

The case of the Fresno Land Company vs. W. E. Willink-Keiljen was argued before Judge Holmes yesterday afternoon, submitted and taken under advisement by the court.

The case of Marceau vs. Burks for violation of contract is set for this morning in Judge Webb's department, but will probably be continued on account of the Thompson murder trial.

The Valley Lumber Company has commenced suit of foreclosure against W. D. Tupper.

THE DUCK HUNTERS.

UNDER SHERIFF BERRY'S PARTY'S EXPERIENCE.

They Return With a Tattered Goose—Good Luck of Judges Harris and Crichton.

The hunting party consisting of Under Sheriff Berry, Deputy Sheriffs Ben Merritt and Frank Scott and Colonel Ben Woodworth, returned Sunday evening from their trip to the Laguna de Tache grant.

The party had been careful to take with them neither a dog nor a canoe, but returned nevertheless with a huge wild goose as full of holes as a sieve. They gave out that game was abominably scarce, and that the goose was the victim of their combined marksmanship.

When first sighted, according to their account, the goose was making an air line for the sheriff's office, 500 yards overhead. Four shotguns were raised, and the next moment mother goose came tumbling earthward, every shot having taken effect.

From a very trustworthy source it is learned that the hunters left the ground with their game bags entirely empty. Arrived at Caruthers, they met young Kannawyer, who was laboriously dragging along a wild goose he had killed with a stone. Major Berry, the financier of the party, immediately negotiated for its purchase, and after the party had left Caruthers behind them they put the goose on the ground and shot it full of holes.

Another thing Major Berry will have to explain is how the dozen ducks received at the sheriff's office several hours after the party's departure, and purporting to have been killed by the party on the grant, were procured. Deputy Sheriff Peck has done some fine detective work, and says Berry ordered the ducks a day before he left for the grant from a local dealer in game, but owing to a misunderstanding, the ducks were delivered too soon. The ducks were very good, however, and the sheriff's deputies enjoyed them.

Judge Harris and Justice Crichton returned yesterday morning from a duck hunting expedition to the Laguna de Tache grant. There was great mortality among the ducks, and little waste of ammunition if the statements of the jurists are to be accepted as the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

INSPECTING A HIGHWAY.

The Board of Supervisors Visit the Sequoia Road.

A committee of the board of supervisors, accompanied by County Surveyor Hoxie and N. L. F. Bachman of THE REPUBLICAN, left Fresno yesterday morning en route to the Sequoia mills, where they will view the new mountain road recently completed there, with the object of determining whether it has been constructed according to contract.

The road will be a great convenience to that section, and the improvements have long been needed.

Bachman is on a tour of adventure, and is expected to slaughter a grizzly or capture a pterodactyl alive ere he returns.

The supervisors will return in time to convene again on Thursday.

W. H. Farmer's Funeral.

The funeral of W. H. Farmer, who died Friday morning, took place from the family residence Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. The ceremony was an impressive one, and was witnessed by a large number of people. Many of the friends of the deceased followed the body to the grave. The floral tributes were many and beautiful. Among those who attended the funeral from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Burkett of Woodbridge, San Joaquin county, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Farmer of Kenwood, Mrs. Rebecca Lowery of Santa Rosa, and Mrs. John N. Woods of Stockton.

A MAN FROM TEXAS.

HIS GUN GETS HIM INTO SERIOUS TROUBLE.

He Assaults E. H. Otto at El Modelo Vineyard—A Woman in the Case.

E. H. Otto, receiver of the El Modelo vineyard, is nursing a very sore head, and John Aiden, a comparatively recent arrival from the Lone Star state, is nursing his wrath in the county jail. The fact is, Mr. Aiden caused the soreness on Mr. Otto's head by giving it a resounding rap with the butt of his pistol.

Aiden and several other hands were discharged by Otto last Saturday, the the force being reduced, as there was not work enough to keep all busy. Some time on Sunday Aiden was told by a friend that Otto had said he had a key to the room of a certain young lady who works in the packing house and who is engaged to Aiden. The young lady sleeps at the vineyard during the week.

Upon this Aiden hired a buggy and, taking the young lady and his informer with him, drove to the vineyard. Arrived there, Aiden called Otto, who came out of the house to see what was wanted.

Aiden told Otto of the statement attributed to him concerning the young lady. As Otto did not make any retraction, Aiden drew his revolver and, pointing it at Otto, rapidly pulled the trigger twice. Each time the cap failed to explode, and Aiden then took hold of the barrel of the weapon and struck Otto a violent blow on the head. Aiden's friend interfered here, and Otto hastened to get out of the way, after which the Aiden party left in haste.

Shortly after the occurrence D. Barr, foreman of the vineyard, came to town and filed a complaint in Justice Austin's court charging Aiden with an assault with a deadly weapon. Deputy Constable Crutcher arrested Aiden, who was brought before the justice yesterday morning. His bond was fixed at $500, in default of which he was sent to jail to await his examination, which was set for November 16th.

BASEBALL.

Interesting Game Between the Butchers and Young Fresnos.

Quite a crowd witnessed the game of baseball at the Belmont grounds Sunday afternoon between the Young Fresnos and the Butchers.

There was some good playing, especially by the Young Fresnos, and the spectators enjoyed the game very much. Monroe did effective work as pitcher for the Fresnos, as did Wright for the opposing nine, but the latter's arm gave out in the sixth inning.

Rapelje, for the Fresnos, and Swartz, for the Butchers, did some excellent fielding. Wright and Donahoo distinguished themselves at the bat. According to the score handed in at this office the Young Fresnos won, making 19 runs to the Butchers' 5.

The Chrysanthemum Fete.

The ladies of St. James' Guild hold their Chrysanthemum Fete at Armory Hall this evening. It will certainly excel the one held a year ago. Its Grecian character will give it additional attractiveness. The decorations and costumes will be something new. The mysterious package table will be both a surprise and a delight to all who may be fortunate enough to patronize it. The flower table, presided over by Mrs. S. S. Wright, with its grand chrysanthemums, will be a wonder. The program will consist of tableaux, music and recitations, to be followed by a social dance. Go and help the ladies out. Everybody is invited. Admission 25 cents, children 15 cents. *

Lyon Can't Get Damages.

W. Parker Lyon has returned from San Francisco, where he went to consult an attorney regarding his loss from breakage of mirror plates by the Kutner-Goldstein powder explosion. Several leading attorneys told him the only person that could be held responsible would be the party who set fire to the building. Lyon now mourns to the tune of $800. *

Wedding Wreaths of the World.

The wreath which graces the head of a bride on her wedding day has been sung by more poets, even the great ones like Schiller, than any other chaplet of fame or honor. In the early days the Jews saw in the wreath a sign of what for them was the most beautiful and precious—the promised land—and of the myrtle the bridal crown was woven. Later this myrtle wreath became the symbol of womanly purity and as such is worn by every girl bride in Germany. In many parts of Germany the sprigs from which the wreath shall be twined must be taken at a fixed hour of the night between certain holy days. And in both Denmark and Germany families posses myrtle trees which have for quite a generation or more furnished the bridal wreaths at family weddings. In Greece the myrtle and the rose were considered the favorite flowers of Venus, the twining of the two together signifying the union of love and virtue. In England, in France and in Poland, as in America, the orange blossom reigns supreme in wedding chaplets. In Italy the white rose has taken the place of the evergreen and fragrant myrtle wreath. In Spain it is the red, red rose that adorns a bride, and Portugal's wedding flower is the carnation.—New York Sun.

WOMEN VOTERS IN MICHIGAN.

Constitutionality of the Female Suffrage Act to Be Tested in the Courts.

The last Michigan state legislature passed a law providing that in all school, village and city elections hereafter held in this state women who are able to read the constitution of the state of Michigan shall be allowed to vote, and all laws of this state prescribing the qualifications of voters at such school, village and city elections, shall apply to women.

It seems a little strange that the legislature should have passed the bill in this form, in view of the fact that the state laws already permit every person of the age of 21 years who has property liable to assessment for school taxes, and who has resided in the district three months preceding any school meeting, to vote at school elections on all questions except those involving the raising of money by tax. It is proposed to have the constitutionality of the act of 1893 tested by the state supreme court, the case coming up from Detroit. If the court decides against the act, would the right which women already possess of voting at school elections be taken away? The state constitution says specifically that "in all elections every male citizen, every male inhabitant in the state on the 24th day of June, 1835, every male inhabitant residing in the state Jan. 1, 1850, who, etc., shall be an elector and entitled to vote."

The language of the act of 1893 is plainly that "in all school, village and city elections" women shall be allowed to vote. If then the court construes the constitution strictly it cannot do otherwise than decide against the act, which decision may have the effect of depriving the women of the right to vote at school elections, which right they possess under the act of May, 1881. The court might decide, however, that no existing right can be taken away by mere implication. The decision in this important case is awaited with interest. —Kalamazoo Telegraph.

SHE WORE TROUSERS.

San Francisco's Polite Mayor Acts the Gallant Against His Will.

Mrs. de Forest, the lady who declares her desire and intention to henceforth walk the earth in pantaloons and other masculine articles of attire in preference to those usually considered as proper to her sex, astonished Mayor Ellert by calling upon him at his office recently. The mayor, however, was soon relieved of his fears as to what the visit might portend by an explanation from the lady which set him at ease. All she wanted was that his honor would assure her of immunity from arrest, as she was aware that she had rendered herself liable to being taken into custody owing to her peculiarity of attire.

The modest mayor bashfully looked at the floor while the lady explained her errand, and then assured her that the chief of police was the official to whom she should apply.

"Indeed!" said the lady. "But where will I find him?"

"At the old city hall," said the mayor.

"But I'm afraid," said the lady, "that he will not grant my request unless I come well recommended—well introduced, that is. Now, Mr. Mayor," and here the lady smiled very coaxingly, "would you mind going with me to call on the chief?"

"Of course not, madam—that is—I mean to say—why, yes, certainly, certainly."

But as he said it and thought of the possibilities of the trip down town so accompanied his honor groaned in spirit.

So a few minutes later the mayor was seen to leave the city hall and start down town accompanied by a lady tastefully attired in a stovepipe hat, creased pants, a Willie boy coat with long tails and everything else that goes to make up a modern everyday dude. No wonder that his progress down town was attended by admiring glances from scores of eyes.—San Francisco Examiner.

"Now good digestion wait on appetite, And health on both."

To assure both the above ends, good, wholesome, palatable food is demanded. It is next to impossible to present a sufficient variety of appetizing bills of fare for our meals without a liberal allowance of pastry and other food in which shortening is required. How to make crisp, healthful, digestible pastry has puzzled the cooks. A difficulty in all good cooking in the past has been hard. Always fickle, never uniform, most unwholesome—lard has always been the bane of the cook and the obstacle to "good digestion."

COTTOLENE

comes now into popular favor as the new shortening—better than even the best of lard with none of lard's objectionable qualities. And comes attended by both "APPETITE AND HEALTH." Grocers sell it all about. REFUSE ALL SUBSTITUTES.
